Narrator 1 (Zuri): Do you know why we have Thanksgiving Day?

Narrator 2 (Jackie): We have Thanksgiving Day because of the Pilgrims and Native Americans!

Narrator 3 (Tristan): You are about to learn all about the Wampanoag people who were already in this land...

Narrator 4 (Bruno): And the Pilgrims who came across the sea from England!

Mayflower (Sam): We MUST get across this wavy sea!!

Mayflower (Sam): Hurray! I didn't sink! I am so thankful!

Plymouth Rock (Bryce): I am so glad to be so strong for my new friends.

Plymouth Rock (Bryce): It is 1620 and the Pilgrims will need my strength.

Pilgrim 1 (Charlotte): I am so thankful to be here in Plymouth, Massachusetts!

Pilgrim 2 (Kaiya): This place looks so different from England. Massachusetts is beautiful!

Pilgrim 3 (Karim): Look! What are those wild birds called (pointing to turkeys)?

Pilgrim 2 (Kaiya): I think they are turkeys! Wow!

Pilgrim 4 (Addie): Look! There are people who look different from us. Maybe we can be friends!

Pilgrim 5 (Yara): Maybe they can show us how to hunt and grow vegetables!

Pilgrim 6 (Hester): Maybe they can show us how to build our homes!

Wampanoag 1 (Oliver): We are so lucky to live in a land with lots of wild turkeys.

Wampanoag 2 (Noah): We are so thankful to know how to plant corn! Look! I see a big ship!

Wampanoag 3 (Max): It looks like there are a lot of people on that ship... Maybe we can help them?

Wampanoag 4 (Conor): Yes! We will show them how to chop wood to build their homes.

Wampanoag 5 (Dylan): We can teach them to grow corn and make delicious corn bread!

Wampanoag 6 (Dahlia): We will teach them how to hunt and eat turkeys!

Wampanoag 7 (Declan): We should be so thankful that we will have peaceful neighbors to share our land with.

Narrator 5 (Clara): The Pilgrims and Wampanoag people were so thankful for their friendship.

Narrator 6 (Ally): So they all gave thanks, for love and for living. And they all had a WONDERFUL THANKSGIVING!
